About Hangmen

The year is 1965. In his small pub in the northern English town of Oldham, Harry is something of a local celebrity. But what's the second-best hangman in England to do on the day they've abolished hanging?

Amongst the cub reporters and pub regulars dying to hear Harry's reaction to the news, his old assistant Syd and the peculiar Mooney lurk with very different motives for their visit.

Running time: 2 hrs 40 mins (including a 20-minute interval)

Tonight's performance is broadcast live from the Wyndham's Theatre in London's West End.

About the Royal Court Theatre

The Royal Court Theatre is the writers' theatre. For sixty years it has been the leading force in world theatre for energetically cultivating writers – undiscovered, new, and established.

Through the writers the Royal Court is at the forefront of creating restless, alert, provocative theatre about now, inspiring audiences and influencing future writers. Through the writers the Royal Court strives to constantly reinvent the theatre ecology, creating theatre for everyone. Over 120,000 people visit the Royal Court in Sloane Square, London, each year and many thousands more see our work elsewhere through transfers to the West End and New York, national and international tours, residencies across London and site-specific work. In 2016 the Royal Court is 60 Years New. This year work includes new plays by Caryl Churchill, Anna Jordan, Mongiwekhaya, Alistair McDowall, David Ireland, Stef Smith, Charlene James, Anthony Neilson, Nathaniel Martello-White and Suzan-Lori Parks.
