Introducing Fleabag

Welcome to the original, hilarious, one-woman play that inspired the BBC's hit TV series Fleabag. A rip-roaring look at some sort of woman living her sort of life.

Fleabag may seem oversexed, emotionally unfiltered and self-obsessed, but that's just the tip of the iceberg. With family and friendships under strain and a guinea pig café struggling to keep afloat, Fleabag suddenly finds herself with nothing to lose.

Written and performed by Phoebe Waller-Bridge and directed by Vicky Jones, Fleabag started its life on-stage at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2013, winning a Fringe First award that encourages new work. Since then, Fleabag has been performed by Phoebe Waller-Bridge in London, Korea and New York, and has also toured across the UK and to Australia with Maddie Rice playing Fleabag.

Now, National Theatre Live are sharing this award-winning play from the stage of Wyndham's Theatre to cinema screens across the UK and around the world.

Our state-of-the-art filming techniques are tailored specifically to each play. From close-ups that capture every flicker of emotion on Fleabag's face, to sweeping wide shots of the stage – you've got the best seat in the house.

We hope you enjoy the show.

Hansard

a new play by Simon Woods
a National Theatre production

Broadcast live November 7

It's 1988 and Tory politician Robin Hesketh has returned home to the idyllic Cotswold house he shares with his wife, Diana. But all is not as blissful as it seems. Diana has a stinking hangover, a fox is destroying the garden, and secrets are being dug up all over the place.

This brand new play is a witty and devastating portrait of the governing class, featuring Lindsay Duncan (About Time) and Alex Jennings (The Lady in the Van).
